

Summer of milestones

Salvatorian Cls. Patric Nikolas and Octavio Trejo-Flores returned home, after completing their summer assignment in Columbia and Maryland respectively, to renew their vows, before starting the school year as they move closer toward their diaconate ordinations. Cl. Marcel Emeh was ordained a deacon at St. Pius X church in Wauwatosa this summer and has begun his diaconate year at our Salvatorian parish of Most Holy Trinity in Tucson, AZ.

And still abroad at our East Asian Mission Vicariate, Cl. Paul Wilkin renewed his vows along with two Salvatorian sisters during a Mass at Mount Carmel Church on September 8, which is also a celebration for our founder, Fr Francis Jordan. We celebrated the 100th anniversary of his death.

Please keep all of our men in formation in prayer.

Cls. Patric Nikolas and Octavio Trejo-Flores renewed their vows at St. Pius X, along with two of our Salvatorian Sisters.

Cl. Paul Wilkin at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Shrine in New Manila, Philippines renewing vows with two of our Filipino Salvatorian Sisters.

Cl. Marcel Emeh receives a blessing from Auxiliary Bishop Most Rev. Jeffrey Haines during his diaconate ordination.
