

Is this you?

Background: Your background?

Why the Salvatorians?

Might it be our Mission? The Society of the Divine Savior (Salvatorians) proclaims and teaches by all ways and means the goodness and kindness of Jesus the Savior.

Vision: Might it be a shared vision? Salvatorians seek to become apostles for our times in order to make the Savior known to all people.

Shared Values: Might it be our shared values?

Prayer

We are vowed men of prayer, the center of which is the Eucharist.

Providence

We trust in God, discerning and responding to the signs of the times.

Apostolate

We are called to be apostles for the renewal of the Church and the world, and we invite others to discover and respond to their call to be apostles.

Justice

We advocate for justice and peace, standing with the poor and marginalized.

Community

We support one another through mutual love and service.

Collaboration

We are servant-leaders, involving others in our mission.

Universality

We include as members of the Society people from every nation, and we are open to serve the people of any nation.

Simplicity

We live a simple lifestyle, becoming one with those we serve, especially the poor.

Celebration

We rejoice in the fullness of life.

Listen for His Call: It may start as a small nudge in your heart—a new interest in getting closer to God. It may be a feeling that you can do more with your gifts. It may be a growing desire to make a difference in the world. The call to life as a Salvatorian brother or priest is unique for each individual—just as the Salvatorian way is unique. We invite you to learn more about us, and to explore whether you may be called to help others experience the joy of God's presence in their lives. -Mark 9:50